Napa Valley, California, January 2009

Napa native, Autumn Millhouse has combined her love of Wine Country with her passion for travel to compile an indispensable guide to the most enchanting wineries, mouth-watering restaurants and romantic accommodations in Napa Valley.

Her newly released book, Romantic Napa Valley: An Insider's Guide for Couples, takes readers on a tempting stroll through some of California's most breathtaking countryside. Millhouse puts her third-generation knowledge to good use as she describes out-of-the-way eateries, secret local favorites and of course, her favorite wineries complete with stunning color photographs.

Fans of the book include, Food Network Chef, Michael Chiarello, Bob Hurley of Hurley's Restaurant and Kari Ruel, publisher of Napa Valley Life Magazine. The book is perfect for wine lovers, couples and anyone hoping to visit the wine capital of the world.

- For anyone hoping for romance in the Napa Valley, this should be a required manual.

Mark Winters, Author - Napa Valley Book: EVERYTHING you need to know about , California's Premiere Wine Country

- This book is a beautiful resource for any couple or group desiring to visit the Valley; it's also a great souvenir to take home to remind them of their wonderful time here.

Denise St. John, Owner, Napa Getaway Tours

With millions of people passing through each year and so much to see, Autumn's book will help you discover your own favorite corners and secret romantic spots."

- Bob Hurley, Hurley's Restaurant
